Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Yarn and Cloth Making: An Economic Study; A College and Normal Schools Text Preliminary to Fabric Study and a Reference for Teachers of Industrial History and Art in Secondary and Elementary The great waste by the clothing consumer due to ignorance of fabric values has called forth this college and normal school text-book on Yarn and Cloth Making. Its object is to awaken in the student a deeper appreciation for economic values. In following the evolving science of spinning and Weaving one gains a new valuation, as well as a distaste for waste. The unique arrangement of subject matter makes it helpful also to teachers in secondary and elementary schools searching for material suited to their particular problems. Hitherto no one has presented in a consecutive study the simplest methods of yarn and cloth making by peoples of lower culture. These are richly suggestive to the instructor of younger children. Teachers of industrial history and economics interested in tracing industrial growth and the dynamic forces which mold society will find the topics Outline and Economic Gain...
