Excerpt: .an unfailing memory, and that trick which accountants acquire of recalling a figure which they saw an hour or a week before, it is possible eventually to construct a coherent account. Practice and the habit of concentration will enable the accountant to recall two or three amounts scattered over various papers and mentally adapt them to balance the sum of them which has appeared elsewhere. One word of advice is desirable in conclusion--never to put hasty work into executors accounts. There are so many points to be determined as to the proper destination of each figure, and there are so many subtleties which may be easily overlooked, that in this, as in so many cases, the safest motto is Festina lente. 1 562. First Steps The first thing of an accounting nature which the representative should do is to serve notice of the decedent...
