Vintage Canada, 2010. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: NATIONAL BESTSELLER FINALIST 20132014 First Nations Communities Read "A near-perfect debut, a masterful mythic-comedy balancing contemporary issues and realities with magic and history. . . . Motorcycles & Sweetgrass is a trickster story, but it's also a fundamentally human account of individuals and of a people struggling to find a place for themselves in the world. . . . A broad, bawdy, raucous, deeply felt and utterly involving narrative, a genuine pleasure to read. . . . Motorcycles & Sweetgrass positively crackles with life, love and magic. What more can you ask of a book?" - Robert J. Wiersema, Edmonton Journal "A winning comedy." - The Globe and Mail " Motorcycles & Sweetgrass may be concerned with aboriginal community politics, identity, mythology and intergenerational legacies, but it reads like a romp. . . . Yet the book's real strength is its underlying account of a community struggling to weave an increasingly abstract traditional past with some kind of meaningful future." - Toronto Star "Drew Hayden Taylor's got no qualms about poking fun at his Native roots, and that's what makes Motorcycles & Sweetgrass such a pleasure. It's playful yet soulful, with a narrative that keeps those pages turning. . . . A fun, rollicking book, and Taylor's voice is fresh and unique." - NOW (Toronto) "Taylor brings a modern twist to ancient native folklore. Motorcycles & Sweetgrass is a charming story about the importance of balance and belief-and a little bit of magic-in everyone's life." - Quill & Quire "If the great Ojibway trickster Nanabush wrote fiction, I imagine he'd write just like Drew Hayden Taylor. You will find much sadness just below the laughs, and sly humour masked by sorrow. A wisdom...
