There will be just light enough to show me the way home, said Miss Keeldar, as she prepared to take leave of Caroline at the Rectory garden-door. You must not go alone, Shirley. Fanny shall accompany you. That she shall not. Of what need I be afraid in my own parish. I would walk from Fieldhead to the church any fine midsummer night, three hours later than this, for the mere pleasure of seeing the stars, and the chance of meeting a fairy. But just wait till the crowd is cleared away. Agreed. There are the five Misses Armitage streaming by. Here comes Mrs Sykes s phaeton, Mr Wynne s close carriage, Mrs Birtwhistle s car: I don t wish to go through the ceremony of bidding them all good-bye, so we will step into the garden and take shelter amongst the laburnums for an instant. The rectors, their curates and their churchwardens,...
