Their work is very exacting, and they must work long hours. The work can only be thoroughly learned in a feather curling establishment, and places are not easy to obtain. Glove Making: --The center of the love making industry in this country is centered around Gloveville, . Learn why nil women in that part of the country understood something of the business a few years ago and many of them were sufficiently expert to earn good pay. The same is probably still true. There is need in love making of women who can refit gloves. Some glove makers import expert help for their use, but a good new woman can readily learn all that is necessary, A new woman who can refit gloves, can often command quite liberal pay. There are a number of flourishing glove makers in the country, owned and managed by women. Experience is necessary in learning the business, both as to its inner details, and its management. A fact that it is a question of capital and management. It is a business in which a woman owner and manager, other things being equal, has quite an advantage over a man manager. Glove making is a recognized business calling, and a little really efficient housekeeper, whose circumstances will allow her to take on engagement, is long unemployed, it is usually because she...
